ChartCo – Regs4ships

Further to your submission and recent updates about your above product, Maritime and Coastguard Agency (MCA) is pleased to recognise “Regs4ships, V4” as electronic equivalent to meet carriage requirements of publications on board United Kingdom registered vessels as follows:

1. UK “M-Notices”, i.e. Merchant Shipping Notices (MSN), Marine Guidance Notes (MGN) and Marine Information Notes (MIN), in compliance with Merchant Shipping (Safety of Navigation) Regulations 2002;
2. International Maritime Organization (IMO) International Convention for the Safety of Life at Sea (SOLAS), International Convention for the Prevention of Pollution from Ships (MARPOL), and International Convention on Standards of Training, Certification and Watchkeeping for Seafarers (STCW), all as amended, and additional IMO publications such as other conventions, codes, resolutions and circulars and UK Regulations when these publications are referenced within the Safety Management System documentation placed on board by the Company; and
3. International Labour Organization (ILO) Maritime Labour Convention, 2006 (MLC, 2006) as required by the Convention itself.

National Contact Points (SOPEP/SMPEP): Shipboard emergency plans for oil (SOPEP) and shipboard marine pollution emergency plans for oil and/or noxious liquid substances (SMPEP) require a list of authorities or persons to be contacted in the event of a pollution incident. Where this is required in the regulations, the list of contacts contained within Regs4ships digital maritime regulations enables compliance.

This recognition is given on the basis that:

- UK M-Notices and Regulations, IMO and ILO publications incorporate the latest available amendments, and that you maintain the royalty arrangements with the two Organizations; and
- the above are reproduced as published, in read-only format and the vessels have the latest available 2-monthly installation/back-up DVD or more frequent digital download (backed up to external media) provided by your Company.

Please sign below as acknowledgement of the above and return the signed copy to the MCA.
